CALL FOR PAPERS

Marco Arosio Award - 9th edition- 2019

The late Professor Marco Arosio (d. 2009) is well known among Italian Medieval Philosophy scholars for his knowledge and accuracy. Each year the Chair dedicated to his memory awards a cash prize (€ 2000,00) for a short essay (40 pages max.) or an article on Medieval Philosophy and Theology written by lecturers or scholars (45 years old max.). Accepted languages are: English, French, German, Italian, Portuguese, and Spanish. The unpublished work must be sent by e-mail (pdf) to:

Marco Martorana at premio.ariosio@upra.org or marco.martorana@upra.org

Two paper copies must be sent to:

Cattedra Marco Arosio di Alti Studi Medievali

Ateneo Pontificio Regina Apostolorum

Via degli Aldobrandeschi 190, Roma 00163, Italy

Deadline: January 31st, 2020. As part of the prize, the Chair will publish the Winner's paper as well as other works deemed to be of high quality and chosen by the Commission of Professors responsible for the Award. The Winner and the Authors of the works selected by the Commission will be invited to present their work on April 22nd, 2020. For further information see www.upra.org or please write to Marco Martorana at the above addresses.

Thank you for promoting culture and knowledge,
